

2025 E-cycle & Shredding Schedule

By disposing of older computer and electronic products at an E-cycle event, you can prevent toxins from entering the waste stream and comply with New York State law requiring consumers to recycle electronic waste. Please visit hempsteadny.gov/225/e-cycling for more information about electronic recycling. Residents may also bring their personal papers and confidential documents to be shredded, free of charge (limit of five file boxes or five paper bags).

Hours: 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Date	Location
March 2	Town Park Point Lookout 1300 Lido Boulevard, Point Lookout
April 5	Newbridge Road Park 2600 Newbridge Road, South Bellmore
May 18	North Woodmere Park Branch Boulevard, North Woodmere
August 2	Levittown Town Parking Field L2 Division Avenue, Levittown
September 7	Oceanside Town Transfer Station 3737 Long Beach Road, Oceanside
October 25	Hempstead Village Public Works Dept. 450 Milburn Avenue, Hempstead

Materials to be shredded should be brought in paper bags or cardboard boxes (no plastic bags please). Witnessed shredding is available on a first-come, first-served basis. When shredding trucks reach maximum capacity, shredding must take place off-site. Cell phones are not accepted at E-cycling events.

E-waste, S.T.O.P. items and shredding materials will not be accepted from commercial establishments, schools, churches, synagogues, or home businesses. No commercial vehicles permitted at these events.

Please visit hempsteadny.gov/223/sanitation-department or call (516) 378-4210 for guidelines on how to dispose of items at S.T.O.P., E-cycling and Shredding Programs.

2025 S.T.O.P. Collection Schedule
